

SOCIETY

SOCIETY has been much in evidence at the various house shows in the State recently, and the splendid balls following them have been among the brilliant features of the summer season. The summer given in Winston Hall, Berryville, Va., immediately following the show in that place was a very delightful affair indeed. Miss John S. Goldsmith, Mrs. Walter Cox, Mrs. H. W. Baker and Mrs. J. R. Elder were among the chairwomen, and the German was led by Harry Warden, of Berryville. Among those dancing from Richmond were: Misses Virginia Tyler, in pale blue satin; Miss Fanny Tyler, in pink chiffon; Miss Dudley Powers, in white satin, embroidered in pearls; Miss Kitty Kent in pink satin.

The show in Warrenton is perhaps the most universally attended of the season, and any number of people motored over from the adjoining counties to be present. After the events of each day, luncheons and charming little dinners preceded the balls. The smart gowns and hats of the women were displayed to great advantage, and mingled with the "pink" coats of the men were much commented upon. The big hunt ball given in the town hall on Wednesday evening was one of the handsomest dances of the season. Hunting colors prevailed in the decorations, and the dance, in which 100 couples participated, was led by William H. Gaines, Stewart White and H. F. Gray.

Richmonders present on this occasion were: Mrs. Eppa Linton, Jr., in amber-colored gown, embroidered with diamonds; Mrs. Carter Scott, in white satin, with crystal garniture, pearls; Mrs. A. L. Welford, in lavender crepe, embroidered in orchids, diamonds; Miss Charlotte Randolph, in pink chiffon; Mrs. Reuben Satterwhite, in lavender satin and pearls; Miss Carol Galt, in rose-colored messaline; Miss Frances Scott, in blue crepe, trimmed in pink; Miss Camilla Welford, in pink; Miss Carter Scott, in pink; Judge R. L. Carter, in pink; Mr. Hagan and others.

So many Virginians are spending their summers North nowadays, and even the late fall finds them following the usual custom of the season. The more formal affairs and a given place to outdoor sports, from number of congenial parties from Richmond are to be found in almost every New England resort. Miss John Williams and her daughter, Miss Adele Williams, who have been spending some time in Atlantic City, are now at the Hotel Bryn Mawr, in Annapolis, Md. Miss Adele Williams, who has been spending the past two months at Northampton, Mass., is also registered at the Bryn Mawr. The Misses Boyd, of Richmond, are also spending some time in the same hotel.

Mrs. Williams and Miss Williams will leave shortly for Lynne, Conn., from there Mrs. Williams will return to Richmond and Miss Williams will visit Miss Virginia Roper at Ocean Grove, New Jersey. Miss Louise Williams is with Miss Alice Engle in Paris, having spent the past three months in England, Switzerland, Holland and France. She will return to this country about the first week in November.

A charming company of society folk are spending the month of September at the Rockbridge Alum Springs, Va., where the fall season is always an unusually beautiful one. Mrs. Cabell and Miss Lyman have won honors among the whist players at this resort, and the entertaining of the present month will be more or less informal, mostly bridge whist and small dinners. Mrs. Cabell is now at the White, where she will remain some time before returning to her home in Richmond. Mrs. E. B. Cunningham, who, with her gray scholastic, Miss Emily Lyman, has summered at the Rockbridge Alum, will return to the city late in September. Miss Lyman will not be at college this year, but will spend the winter in Mrs. Cunningham's apartments at the Chesterfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cannon, also of Richmond, led the German at the Rockbridge Alum, which took place last week, with thirty-five couples dancing. The ballroom was decorated in evergreens and Y. M. I. colors, a number of Y. M. I. cadets being present. The opening figure was a military one. Favors included watches, dolls, handkerchiefs, bubble pipes, etc.

Sponsor Appointed.

Miss Lillian D. Barham, of Southampton, who has been spending the past summer at the Alleghany Springs, where she has been much admired, was recently appointed by General Carr, of North Carolina, maid of honor to the reunion of North Carolina veterans, which meets in Norfolk September 8, 7. Miss Barham is a sister of Senator J. Langhorne Barham, of Goldsboro, and a member of the well known Langhorne family of Virginia. Miss Barham's sponsor is Miss Marcia Myers, of Washington, N. C.

Back in Town.

Mrs. Samuel P. Waddill and Miss Emily Waddill, who have been spending the month of August at the Greenbrier bath and Springs, have returned to their home on Grove Road. Mrs. Waddill left yesterday for Wicketon, Va., where she will be a member of a very attractive house party given by Miss Walker for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bryan have returned to the city, after spending the midsummer camping with a party of friends in Maine.

Mrs. J. Cloyd Kent and small daughter, who were also among the Richmonders at the White for August, have returned to their apartment at the Raleigh.

Several Richmond families have occupied cottages in Bon Air for the summer, which they will close and return to the city some time this week. Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Randolph and Beverly Randolph, Jr., who have been summering at the Bon Air Inn, returned to Richmond last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Moncreux and family, who also spent the summer at Bon Air, have returned to their home in this city.

Mrs. W. C. Smith, Mrs. Horace C. Buchanan, H. G. Buchanan, Jr., and Miss Sinclair, of Giles county, have returned to the city, after an extended trip to Niagara Falls, Atlantic City and other places of interest before returning to Richmond.

Mrs. William R. Trigg, Misses Berta and Barbara Trigg and Edward Trigg are again back in town, after an absence of nearly a year in Europe.

Mrs. R. Larimer Gordon and son are expected in Richmond on Monday, after spending the summer months in Gordonsville, Va., as the guests of Mrs. Gordon's mother, Mrs. W. H. Talbot.

Attractive Card Parties.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Killian, on Pennsylvania Avenue, Salem, Va., presented a beautiful scene Wednesday night, when Miss Irma Killian, their daughter, entertained a large number of her friends at six o'clock. In honor of Mrs. H. Fulwell, of Nottingham, of Eastern Shore, and Miss Marie Kolner, of Richmond. The library, halls and parlor were beautifully decorated in white and yellow, goldenrod and clematis being used to carry out the scheme. The guests of honor were presented with handsome friendship books, bound in leather. Upon the arrival of the guests punch was served in the hall by Mrs. Thomas Kelly, of Texas, and Miss Ruth Kizer. Supper was served at the little table immediately after the game.

The home of Mrs. C. M. Walker in Farmville was the scene of a brilliant social function on Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. E. Scott Martin entertained at cards.

Bridge whist was played, and the entertainment was given in honor of Mrs. W. C. Burnett, of Savannah, and the others present were: Mesdames J. L. Jarman, Richard Spencer, W. P. Richardson, F. J. McIntosh, C. B. Crute, J. L. Bugg, J. J. Walker, R. B. Tuggle, W. Watkins, J. M. Venable and Mrs. Boyle. Misses Fannie Berkeley, Frankie McKinney, Mabel O'Ferrall, of Richmond; Louise Wootton, Mary Jackson and Sallie Stokes.

At Duckrook Tench.

Those stopping at the Graser Cottage, Duckrook Beach, are Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Graser, Miss Sabina Graser, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Rueger, Henry E. and Ferdinand Rueger, Mrs. John E. Haase, Charles and John Haase, all of Richmond.

Misses Louise and Pauline Kirschmann, formerly of Williamsport, Pa., but now of Richmond, have been guests at the home of Professor Felix Jardella, bandmaster of the National Soldiers' Home.

Lynman-Steinbrecher.

The marriage of Miss Eleanor Theres Steinbrecher to John Herman Lynman will take place on the morning of Tuesday, September 6, at 11 o'clock, at St. Mary's Church, the Rev. Father Charles, assisted by the Rev. Fathers Magri, Edwards, O'Kelly, Glen and O'Keefe, officiating.

Both the bride and groom are well known in German circles of the city. Miss Steinbrecher being an eloquent list of no small talent. Mr. Lynman is a prominent young business man and the vice-president of the V. B. Pizzini Company.

The bride will enter the church with her father, John J. Steinbrecher, and will be attended by her two sisters, Miss Roseanna Steinbrecher, as maid of honor, and Miss Marie Steinbrecher as bridesmaid. Leonard Ahmdein will

Freckle-Face

September brings out Unlucky Spots. How? Freckle-Face.

Do you know how easy it is to remove those ugly spots so that no one will call you freckle face?

Simply apply Freckle-Face ointment, double strength, from Tragic Drug Co., and one night's treatment will show you how easy it is to rid yourself of freckles and get a beautiful complexion. The burning sun in September brings out freckles, and as a result more ointment is sold this month and the druggists sometimes find it difficult to get sufficient to supply all calls. Be sure to ask for the double strength ointment, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.

act as the groom's best man, and the ushers will include: Robert Shepherd, Janssens Kain, Charles Mahoney and Columbus Canepa.

Miss Lelia McEvoy will preside at the organ, and Miss Mamie Keck will accompany her on the violin. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. Lyne and his bride will leave for the city of the Middle West and the Pacific coast. No cards have been issued.

Richmonders Honored.

Mrs. Thomas Christian Gordon, who is spending the summer at her country place, "Oak Hill camp," in Albemarle, entertained a merry dance last Friday evening, complimentary to Miss Martha Lefebvre and Gordon Lefebvre, of Richmond, and their house guest, G. Richard Cooke, of Texarkana, Ark.

The dance was chaperoned by Mrs. William Money, Mrs. Henry A. Sampson, and Mrs. Oscar Cranz, of Richmond. Among the guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Robert Shackelford, Mrs. Ashton Jones, Kansas City, Mo.; Miss Margaret Worthington, Washington, D. C.; Jellie Scott, and Frances Lefebvre, of Richmond; Helen Money, Anne Lewis, Isabel Money, Amelle Money, Annie Fry, Greensboro, N. C.; Elsie Bell, Lucille Bell, Isabel Lewis, Mildred Lewis, and Ruth Bell; Messrs. Aylett Everts, Jr., Childrey Scott, Richmond; Channing Haynes, Edward Haynes, Channing Harry Mann, Frank Lewis, Richmond; Colquitt Shackelford, Douglas Page and John Shackelford.

In honor of Mrs. Thomas Neal, of this city, Mrs. Lewis P. Nelson, Jr., was hostess at bridge last week in her home. The guests included: Mesdames Neal, Clifford Miller, of Richmond; Graeme Neal, of Richmond; W. A. Bickers, Jr. J. Roberts, C. H. Goldsborough, T. E. Grimsley, of Lovelington; Misses Sallie Strother, Kate Cooper, and Jennie Latham.

Enjoyable House Party.

Miss Lucile Cooper, daughter of Dr. W. F. Cooper, of Newport News, has been entertaining a group of friends at her home in the "Versailles," Warren-summers house, for several days. Her guests have included friends from Baltimore, Washington, Richmond and Newport News. Mr. Cooper will visit several weeks in Washington and Baltimore before returning home.

Visiting in Crews.

Mrs. H. M. Barbour, Past Worthy Grand Matron of the Eastern Star of Virginia, and her daughter, Mrs. Mary B. Ramos, of Richmond, who have been spending the summer in Crews, Va., have been very entertained, several very attractive dinner parties being given in their honor. Mrs. W. R. Rogers was hostess of one very attractive affair in their home, the table being decorated in yellow flowers and ferns. Mrs. T. S. Harlem, Mrs. G. W. Richardson and Mrs. R. A. Alston were also dinner hostesses complimentary to Mrs. Barbour and Mrs. Ramos.

The guests at the latter function included: Mrs. Manly B. Ramos, Mrs. H. M. Barbour, Mrs. W. R. Rogers, Mrs. T. B. Oliver, Mrs. Henry Lee, Mrs. T. S. Harlem, Mrs. G. Oliver, Mrs. Brittenham, Mrs. Rilton, Mrs. Rose, Mrs. Sowers, Mrs. Marks and Mrs. Richardson.

Mrs. Barbour and Mrs. Ramos were in their turn hostesses of a dinner in honor of Mrs. Harlem, Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Alston, of Crews, Va. The table was decorated in pink roses.

Norfolk Wedding.

A marriage of interest to society here, where the bride has frequently visited, was that of Miss Josephine F. Scott, daughter of Colonel Joseph Scott, of Norfolk, to Hugh L. Goode, of this city. The ceremony took place

The Social Side of Washington

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Washington, D. C., September 3.—September, adorned with a month of autumnal splendor, is a month of social activity. The house contains a particularly large library and ample room for the family requirements. It also has a spacious drawing room and a dining room of such dimensions as to afford frequent and generous hospitality.

Mr. Justice and Mrs. Lorton, who have spent the summer at the Virginia Hot Springs, are expected to return to the capital, about a hour in 20. The government junketing will not end so soon, however, for the administration is deeply interested in the progress of the country. The most important accomplishment of Mr. Taft's regime, however, the President has had a personal pride in the success of the undertaking ever since, as Secretary of War, he was sent by Colonel Roosevelt to inspect the details of canal digging.

According to the plans now made, President and Mrs. Taft will leave here immediately after the fall elections, accompanied by a party of friends and escorts. Just when they will be in this favored group is not yet announced, but it is safe to predict that it will include a number of the most prominent real woman friend of Mrs. Taft, and Captain Archibald Butt, the handsome Georgian, who has been military aide to the President for 10, those many months.

By the time President and Mrs. Taft are ready to sail from Cape Point for this Southern trip, the Secretary of War and Mrs. Dickinson, with their congenial party, will have returned from their tour around the world; the Attorney-General and Mrs. Wickersham and the Secretary of Commerce and Labor and Mrs. Nagel will be expected from a delightful summer sojourn in Alaska. The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Meyer will also have made their last tour of the season on the Dolphin, and the army and navy officers detailed as inspectors of forts and stations from Maine to California will be again in Washington.

The Supreme Court, always the first circle to reassemble in its entirety, will be thoroughly established in winter quarters by the second Monday in October—the constitutionally appointed date for the fall opening of the country's highest tribunal. Society is on the qui vive for the coming of the court, or never before have there been so many at one time as will this year represent this august, though small, group of men and women.

The two new justices—Mr. Justice Lurton, of Tennessee, and Mr. Justice Hughes, now Governor of New York, to succeed respectively Mr. Justice Peckham and Mr. Justice Brandeis—have whetted this interest by their inclusion in a recent tour of the country. Hughes, the first to make a decision, selected a roomy, four-story brick mansion with large grounds, loat the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. G. Dering, of this city, and was performed by Dr. Gayle. The house was beautifully decorated in palms and ferns. The bride was attired in a going-away gown of brown, with hat and gloves to match. Mr. Goode is a prominent young business man of this city, and comes of an old and distinguished family by that name, being a direct descendant of John Goode, of Wilby. Immediately following the wedding a reception was held, after which Mr. and Mrs. Goode left for an extended Northern tour. They will be at home, 2115 Hanover Avenue, after September 15.

A very merry party of young people is camping on the meadows of Dan in the Blue Ridge Mountains, near Stuart, Va., for this week. Some of them are Misses Frances C. Farrell, of Richmond; Hope Noel, of Stuart, Va., and others. The party is chaperoned by Mrs. Albert S. Downes, of Cape Charles. Miss Farrell has been spending the month of August with the Misses Noel at Synnaiside, Forest Park.

Miss Rosa Pendleton Trant, of this city, who is spending some time at the Rockbridge Alum Springs, Va., entertained the members of the younger set very charmingly at a party on Kentucky Row last Monday night. The porch was attractively decorated in ferns and goldenrod and was brightly illuminated with Japanese lanterns.

Some of those present were Misses Elizabeth Earnest, Carrie Wonnell, Julia Ellison, Florie Lee Taylor, Agnes Earnest, Mary Waddill, Frances Mayer, Ada Trant, Lillian Hughes, Josephine Hardy, W. W. LaPrade, A. Cannon, H. P. Quantin, A. Owen, Jr., Paul English, J. M. Hundley, R. Peake, G. Rembert, F. B. Webster, G. D. Witt-shire, T. S. Patterson, Charles Karst, C. P. Simons, Mrs. B. H. Trant, Mrs. Arthur Cannon chaperoned the affair.

In and Out of Town.

Miss Helen Tanner, who has been the guest of F. M. Randolph, at "Cloverfields," near New Kent, returned to Richmond last week.

General and Mrs. William Ruffin Cox are at the White Sulphur Springs for the month of September.

Miss Mary Garland Todd, of "Temple Lodge," near Richmond, is the guest of Miss Margaret Stuart Jones, of Brington.

The Misses Kidwell, of 1001 1-2 West Main Street, will move into their new residence, 933 West Grace Street, very shortly.

Mrs. Walter Scott, Misses Jellie, Katherine and Walter Scott and Childrey Scott are registered at the Brandon Hotel, Basic City.

Miss Julia D. Yeager has returned to the city, after visiting a month in Virginia, in Roanoke, Va.

Miss Sadie Wakefield, who has been the guest of Mrs. Baynard Nelson, in Orange, is visiting Mrs. Henry Goode, in Gordonsville, for several days before returning to Richmond.

Miss Emma Fleet is spending some time with her brother, Garnett Fleet, at King and Queen Court-house.

Mrs. Harry Lerch and Miss Clara Burdard, of Reading, Pa., are visiting their brother, Charles, at his home in Swansboro, Va.

Mrs. O. D. James is spending some time at Old Orchard, Me., and will return to Richmond for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kruse, of Danburg, Pa., are visiting Mrs. Kruse's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Belvin, 1121 West Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Brooke, Mrs. John Cooke Green and Misses Bessie and Lillian Brooke, of Culpeper, are visiting friends in this city.

Miss Emily B. Wilson has returned to Washington, after spending a month in Richmond, Brems Bluff, Va., and Rehoboth Beach, Del.

Mrs. David Glanding and her granddaughter, Miss Julia Jennings, of Baltimore, are the guests of friends in Richmond for the month of September.

Miss Lucy Braxton Harwood has returned to the city after a sojourn in the mountains of Virginia, and Scottsville.

Miss Amy McRae Worth, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lillian Fitzgerald, in New York, has returned to Richmond.

Miss Bessie Lee Schuman has returned to her home, 1201 Park Avenue, after a stay of five weeks with relatives and friends in Caroline county.

Silk Lisle Hose,
Special 39c

Kaufmann & Co.

Pure Silk Hose,
Special 75c

Fall Fashions in Dresses and Suits

Our close relations with the originators of fashion give us the first word as to the changes in the world of style and fabrics, and this knowledge gained, is accurately depicted in our showing of Dresses and Suits.

Please read these few items over carefully, and you'll find yourself delighted with the early season opportunities we've provided.

An Exquisite Dress Made of Fine French Serge

Colors, black or navy; round collar and yoke of cream lace, bodice neatly braided and self-colored; new skirt; Monday $15.00

This Charming Black and White Shepherd's Check Woolen Dress

Lace yoke and collar, green satin collar reverse, patent leather belt, dress specially adapted for women and misses; Monday $18.50

New Tailored Waists

We wish we could picture the daintiness and style of these Hand-Embroidered and Plain Tailored Waists we are showing for early fall wear. You'll be delighted with the exhibit.

Tailored Waist, nice quality linene, scalloped front, for..... $1.50

Fine Quality Linen Tailored Waists, embroidered front..... $2.50

Pure Linen Waists, hand-embroidered front, excellent value..... $3.75

Extra Quality Hand-Embroidered Waists, best workmanship..... $5.00

Autumn Millinery

An unusually pleasing showing of Tailored Hats now on display on first floor for early fall wear, specially priced.

Members of Enjoyable House Party

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

South Boston, Va., September 3.—Those who composed the week-end house party at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Marcellus King, Omega, Va., were Mrs. Pollok, of Danville; Miss Eunice Priehard, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Pettus, of South Boston; Benjamin Mebane and John Wesley Elliott, of South Boston; Miss Margaret Daniel, Tom Wolf, of Buffalo Springs; C. R. East, of York Trap; Mr. and Mrs. Marcellus King, Miss Ida King, Miss Sarah King, Baker, Owen, Emerson, Rufus and Keister King, of Omega.

Kean, of New Jersey, and Mr. and Mrs. mats accredited to this capital.

James Bryce, whose official predecessor, as first ambassador from Great Britain, was long the distinguished arbiter of this picturesque international group, will be leaving the city in a few days about his chances for his leadership. This "greatest American of them all" is now steering toward the lighthouse of Panama, and after a visit to Colon and the Canal Zone, will go to South America before going for a fall trip to England. He is accompanied by Mrs. Bryce and aunt, their departure, rumors are afloat that the new year will find another British diplomat here as the representative of King George V.

The Turkish ambassador, whose predecessors are as numerous as the number of years since the legation was changed to an embassy, is being entertained at Manhattan Beach, and farewells are being said to him there. The Turkish ambassador, who is on the eve of going to his new post at Paris. In the latter city he will meet again A. Rustom Bey, former counselor of the Turkish embassy here and inaugurator of modern ideas of hospitality within its portals. In times he became an ambitious and celebrated the anniversary of the birth of New Turkey with a ball which established a precedent for excellence of appointments. It was a welcome addition to the diplomatic corps, despite the regret expressed over the transfer of his predecessor.

A small, but aristocratic company went from Washington on Thursday for the marriage of Miss Lillian Brockhouse son, Ulysses S. Grant, Jr., and Edmund C. King, of Portland, Ore. The wedding will be a late autumn event, witnessed by a goodly number of the descendants of the first Julia Dent Grant, including General Fred D. Grant, U. S. A., commandant at Governor's Island.

Keen interest is also taken here in the approaching marriage of Miss Julia Dent Grant, granddaughter of the late President Grant and daughter of his grandson, General John D. Grant, Jr., and Edmund C. King, of Portland, Ore. The wedding will be a late autumn event, witnessed by a goodly number of the descendants of the first Julia Dent Grant, including General Fred D. Grant, U. S. A., commandant at Governor's Island.

Another early wedding of considerable interest is that of Miss Katherine Warren, daughter of Mr. Samuel Warren, of Boston and Dedham, Mass., to John Elliot Thayer, a cousin of Countess Moltke, wife of the Danish minister to Washington. Miss Warren's mother is a daughter of the late Thomas F. Bayard, formerly Secretary of State and American ambassador to Great Britain during the Cleveland administration, and was exceedingly popular in both this city and London.

The new superintendent of West Point, Major-General Thomas H. Barry, with his wife and daughter, Miss Ellen, were most cordially entertained at the capital this week when they stopped here for a few days en route to the Military Academy from their most recent home in California. This is the family's first visit to Washington since the general's transfer to Cuba, just a few weeks after Miss Ellen's presentation to society, and though many of their friends are still out of town, those who had returned left nothing to be desired in the way of a welcome home to each of the trio.

A new arrival on the German embassy staff is Captain Heinrich von Lichtenfels, a bachelor, and a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Everett Meade, of Acotink, and both she and Mr. Sydnor are well known in Washington. The ceremony took place in historic Public Church, of which the bride's father has long been the rector.

Mrs. Frank D'Alton and daughter, Joanne, of Petersburg, who are visiting Mrs. Collins, in Thirteenth Street, are the recipients of many pleasant attentions.

Lieutenant Daniel Huston Torrey, U. S. A., and Mrs. Torrey, formerly Miss Alice Taylor Buckley, of this city, and Virginia, are visiting their uncle, Allen Smith, at Canning, on the Rappahannock.

GRACE PORTER HOPKINS

Dunlop Flour

TO-DAY we print the name in the "Spot Light" for the good and sufficient reason that your attention will be focused upon it. Let it cut into your memory--

Dunlop Flour

The Flour With the Flavor.

Made in Richmond—Used for Generations—Sold on Four Continents.

The Dunlop Mills, Richmond, Va.

Nandy, these are Good Biscuits

Good biscuits are largely dependent upon good Baking Powder.

Thus, Good Luck is really bread insurance.

That's why you will find it on the pantry shelf of discriminating housekeepers.

Your grocer has it.

THE SOUTHERN MANUFACTURING COMPANY,
Richmond, Va.

TEN AMERICAN AND EUROPEAN AWARDS
Sauers
THE BEST FLAVORING EXTRACT
BY EVERY TEST